

OPTIONS TO PROVE YOUR FINANCIAL MEANS

The Hague University of Applied Sciences (THUAS) has the legal obligation to check each academic year if students with a residence permit for the purpose of study have sufficient financial means. This means you have to be able to show proof you have about € 10.350,- available for living costs, in addition to your tuition fees for the entire academic year. For this, you are required to annually submit the signed "Foreign Nationals own statement".

Upon request you have to be able to show detailed proof of your sufficient financial means.

➤ Below you can find information on the conditions and criteria how to proof this.

A sufficient amount in your personal bank account

Proof : an original recent bank statement

Conditions : the statement has to be in English or Dutch, be no older than 3 months, and should include:

- name and contact details of the bank
- your own full name
- account number
- date
- a sufficient amount in Euro's, freely available – this means € 10.350,- excl. tuition fees

Alternatively, in case of a Dutch bank account, you could provide an internet print screen of your bank account including login date, your full name, account number and a sufficient amount.

A grant or scholarship awarded to you

Proof : an original statement of grant or scholarship

Conditions : the statement has to be in English or Dutch, and should include:
